Terms of Use

GED preparation platform

Effective: 21 August 2026 · Version: 1.0 · Reference: SCA_GED_Platform_Terms_v1.0

Applies to: the Academy's online GED preparation platform and the learning materials within it

Published by: Swakopmund Christian Academy CC (CC/99/1262), trading as Swakopmund Christian Academy, a private school registered with the Ministry of Education, Innovation, Youth, Sport, Arts and Culture under reference 8803

This is a preparation course only

Swakopmund Christian Academy prepares learners for the GED® subject tests. The Academy does not set, administer, invigilate, mark, score, certify or award the GED. The four subject tests are written, scored and certified by GED Testing Service at an official test centre, and the credential — the District of Columbia High School Equivalency Diploma — is issued by them, not by the Academy.

What a learner receives from the Academy is tuition, coaching and preparation. It is not the purchase of a qualification.

1. About this platform

This platform supports the Academy's GED preparation programme. It provides learning material, practice and progress tracking for enrolled learners. It is not a testing service and it is not operated by, affiliated with, or endorsed by GED Testing Service or Pearson VUE.

Using the platform means accepting these terms. If you do not accept them, please do not use it.

2. Accounts and access

- Accounts are created by the Academy for enrolled learners. The platform is not open to public registration.
- Sign-in details are personal. They must not be shared, and a learner is responsible for activity under their account.
- Tell the Academy promptly if you believe an account has been used by someone else.
- The Academy may suspend or withdraw access where a learner leaves the programme, or where these terms are breached.

3. Acceptable use

- Use the platform for your own lawful, educational purposes only.
- Do not attempt to disrupt it, gain unauthorised access to it, or bypass its security or filtering.
- Do not copy, redistribute or publish the learning material.

- Academic honesty. Work submitted must be the learner's own. Artificial-intelligence tools may be used to explain a concept, generate extra practice or check grammar on work already drafted; they may not be used to produce work submitted as the learner's own, and no tool or assistance of any kind may be used during a timed mock or a practice test.

4. Content and intellectual property

The platform, its design and its learning material belong to the Academy and are protected under the Copyright and Neighbouring Rights Protection Act 6 of 1994. They may not be copied, reproduced or used commercially without the Academy's written permission.

GED® is a registered trademark of its owner. It is used on this platform only to describe the tests for which the Academy prepares learners.

5. What the Academy does not promise

Subject	Position
Passing the tests	The Academy does not, and may not, guarantee that any learner will pass. Preparation improves readiness; the result is earned by the learner in an external examination the Academy has no part in scoring.
Recognition in Namibia	The GED is a United States credential and is not a Namibian qualification. Recognition in Namibia requires a separate evaluation by the Namibia Qualifications Authority, which charges a fee. The Academy makes no representation about the outcome of that evaluation.
Admission anywhere	The Academy makes no representation about how any university, employer or professional body will treat the credential. Learners should confirm requirements with each institution directly, in writing.
Test scheduling	Eligibility, booking, seat availability, dates and locations are controlled by GED Testing Service and the authorised test centre, not by the Academy.

6. Age and testing eligibility

Under GED Testing Service's policy for Namibia:

- 16 and under — may not sit a GED test.
- 17 — may test only once GED Testing Service has approved both a Parental/Guardian Consent form and an Age Waiver requested through the candidate's ged.com account. Scheduling is not possible until both are approved.
- 18 and over — may test without this restriction.

The Academy cannot waive or expedite these requirements. Preparation may begin before a learner is old enough to test. No member of staff will indicate a test date before eligibility is confirmed.

7. Availability and accuracy

The Academy takes care to keep the platform's information accurate and current, but does not warrant that it is complete or free of error, and nothing on it is a binding offer unless expressly stated. The platform is provided on an "as available" basis and uninterrupted access is not guaranteed. Test fees, policies and procedures set by GED Testing Service are outside the Academy's control and may change.

8. Links and third-party services

The platform may link to third-party sites and tools, including ged.com. The Academy does not control them and is not responsible for their content, availability or practices. Their own terms and privacy notices apply.

9. Personal information

Personal information handled through this platform is dealt with under the accompanying Privacy Notice, which explains what is collected, why, and the circumstances in which information is shared with GED Testing Service and Pearson VUE outside Namibia.

10. Liability

To the extent the law allows, the Academy is not liable for loss arising from use of, or inability to use, the platform, or from reliance on its content.

Nothing in these terms excludes or limits liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, for gross negligence or fraud, for harm to a child, or for any other liability that the law does not permit to be excluded.

11. Questions and complaints

Contact the school office on +264 64 404605 or at school.office@swakopca.com. Complaints are dealt with under the Academy's own procedures.

Nothing here limits your right to report a child-protection concern to the appropriate authorities, or to raise a complaint about the Academy's registration or compliance with the Ministry of Education, Innovation, Youth, Sport, Arts and Culture or the Erongo regional education directorate. These routes are always available and are not conditional on any internal process.

12. Changes to these terms

These terms may be updated from time to time. The current version is always published here, with its effective date. Continued use of the platform after a change means accepting the updated terms.

13. Governing law

These terms are governed by the laws of the Republic of Namibia.
